OVERVIEW

Lacie is a partner with Walter Haverfield's Tax and Wealth Management Group. She has a Master of Laws in Taxation and over two decades of specialized experience in both public accounting and extensively, in the legal profession. Lacie's practice encompasses all areas of taxation, including individual and business income and transfer tax planning, ERISA, estate planning, executive compensation, non-profits, Subchapters C & S, mergers and acquisitions, employee benefits, and IRS and tax court controversy practice.

Lacie's varied experience makes her a valuable advisor to high net worth and ultra-high net worth individuals, families, and entrepreneurs on multi-generational wealth preservation and transfers and the related tax consequences. Her vast tax background gives her the ability to work on diverse issues in addition to her specialty areas – for example, she has developed a niche in New Market Tax Credits and Historic Tax Credits, having worked on many of the large development programs in the Northeast Ohio area.
