OVERVIEW

Sebastian C. Pascu is a partner with Walter Haverfield in the Tax and Wealth Management Group. Sebastian focuses his practice primarily in the areas of Federal, State and Local Tax Planning and Controversies, Mergers and Acquisitions, Estate Planning, and Probate and Trust Administration. Sebastian counsels domestic and international high-net-worth individuals, families, and closely-held businesses in a wide range of personal, charitable, business succession and estate planning matters, as well as taxable and tax-free stock and asset acquisitions, post-acquisition restructurings, incorporation transactions, and general tax consequences of transactions between shareholders and corporations.

Sebastian earned his J.D. from Cleveland State University College of Law where he was Articles Editor of the Journal of Law and Health. While at Cleveland State, Sebastian was an extern with the City of Lorain law department and worked as a law clerk for a law firm specializing in complex financial and commercial matters, particularly in the areas of securities litigation, investment fraud, antitrust, and international disputes. Prior to joining Walter Haverfield, Sebastian worked as a tax senior consultant at a global accounting firm.
